Designing professionally since 2001, Shay's passion for interiors and interior products makes creating beautiful spaces for clients a true dream job. Inspired by traveling, the arts, family and friends, Shay's goal in design is to create an inviting atmosphere that reflects the personal taste of each client. Her projects are often regarded as "livable luxe" in which she infuses unique elements and statement pieces that still offer comfortable family friendly living. Her portfolio ranges from commercial spaces including projects for dentists and major corporations to residential projects around the country including high rises and sprawling estates. Shay's vibrant personality and personal approach to design often land her high-profile and lifelong clients that trust her not only with their primary homes, but also vacation homes around the world. She has been the interior design expert on "Good Morning Texas" since 2006 and is regularly called on to serve as a style expert and broadcast host for many of the industry's top manufacturers and trade markets.

Shay has been nominated for best interior designer for the 2017 and 2018 ARTS Awards, an industry award program celebrating excellence in the home industry.

IBB Design Fine Furnishings was founded by my favorite dynamic women -- my mom, Beth Rafferty, more than 30 years ago. It's such a privilege & a joy to work alongside her on a daily basis.
